This matter is before the Court with the Report and Recommendation (“Report”) of United States Magistrate Judge Molly H. Cherry, made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Local Civil Rule 73.02(B)(2) of the District of South Carolina.<sup>1</sup> (DE 4.) Plaintiff James Hildred Proctor, Jr. (“Plaintiff” or “Proctor”), a state prisoner at SCI-Houtzdale in Houtzdale, Pennsylvania, proceeding pro se, brought this action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against defendants Mark Dialesandro, John Stabiel, Jr., John E. Wetzel, and Stroudsburgs DA’s Office (collectively “Defendants”) alleging perjury, false imprisonment, rape, and aggravated assault.<sup>2</sup> (DE 1, p. 4.) He also writes “false imprisonment” and “retaliation law suit, failing to comply w/court order[.]” (Id.)

The Report was issued on November 6, 2023, recommending Plaintiff’s case be transferred to the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania because none of the <sup>1</sup> The recommendation has no presumptive weight, and the responsibility for making a final determination remains with the United States District Court. See Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261, 270-71 (1976). The court is charged with making a de novo determination of those portions of the Report and Recommendation to which specific objection is made. The court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendation made by the magistrate judge or recommit the matter with instructions. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1).

<sup>2</sup> Plaintiff also checked a box on the Complaint form stating he is bringing a claim under Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents of Federal Bureau of Narcotics, 403 U.S. 388 (1971), against federal officials. However, Plaintiff has alleged no claims against federal officials.

Defendants reside in South Carolina, and Plaintiff has not alleged that any of the events or omissions that gave rise to this claim occurred in this district. Therefore, venue under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 is not appropriate in the District of South Carolina. Plaintiff has not filed an objection to the report. In the absence of objections to the Report and Recommendation, this Court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983). The Court must “only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir. 2005).

Accordingly, after a thorough review of the Report and Recommendation and the record in this case, the Court finds no clear error on the face of the record. Therefore, the Court adopts the Report (DE 4) and incorporates it herein by reference.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that this case is transferred to the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania for further handling.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
